MICHAEL W. MCNEESE

601 842-1432
mikepfl@gmail.com

181 Highland Hills Lane
Flora, Ms.
39071

Education:

A degree in computer science and minor in management from the University of Southern Mississippi.

Experience:

Oracle SQL

4th Dimension Relational Database

Extensive knowledge of procedural programming and OOP

FORTRAN

COBOL

PASCAL

SWIFT

Microsoft 365

30 years of technical support experience with Macintosh and Windows

Partner and owner of Pulmonary Function Laboratory, IT, Mississippi 1983 to 2007.
I managed all information technology activities to include the writing of software, software maintenance, database maintenance, database SQL queries, Mac OS, Windows Server, and hardware maintenance. This included the support of a Windows Server for a mobile server and associated medical equipment.

Extensive knowledge of the Macintosh computer system and use of IOS devices.

Strong organizational skills for scheduling, problem solving, communications with clients, writing documentation, technical support, and troubleshooting an organizations daily activities.

Owner operator of Core Designs Computer Consulting, 2007 to 2016.

Relational database design and execution, server installation, server configuration, network hardware, needs assessment, planning and execution of business plans as they relate to IT.

Seeking employment in the area of technical support / help desk support, one to one mentoring of IT related educational needs, relational database development, or personal assistant.

Hobbies:

Scuba, photography, science and technology, woodworking, architecture, sci-fi, science fiction, fantasy, and World War II.